

Learning about Overhead Expense (OE) insurance from Principal® is easy. This product profile outlines the key features you need to know.

How it works

An Overhead Expense insurance policy helps ensure business owner clients can protect their business if a disability prevents them from working. Overhead Expense insurance reimburses an owner for business expenses incurred during a disability.

Target market

- Small- to medium-size businesses with:
 - Less than eight owners for fee-for-service businesses
 - Less than four owners for other types of businesses
- Owners:
 - Between the ages of 35 and 55
 - Critical to the continued earning of business income
 - Occupations with little to no manual duties, such as corporate executives, accountants/CPAs, attorneys, business owners, dentists and medical professionals

Policy benefits

- Non-cancelable (as long as premiums are paid)
- Guaranteed renewable to age 65 (or in certain states¹, five years from the policy date, whichever is later)
- Conditionally renewable for life
- Premiums deductible as a necessary business expense

Starting the conversation with clients

- Get in the door by offering, complimentary business planning services from Principal that include:
 - Buy-sell reviews – to help ensure clients’ buy-sell agreements are effective and properly funded.
 - Informal business valuations – to provide valuations of clients’ businesses to help identify next steps for business continuation planning.
- Discuss the benefits of having business protection, which helps them maintain their business value and credit ratings.
 - Reimbursement of key business expenses helps ensure the doors of a business remain open.
 - This type of insurance helps serve as “interruption” protection if an owner becomes too sick or hurt to work.
- When cost is a concern, discuss the 20% Multi-Life Discount³. It’s a great way to save money, while getting the protection needed.

Example: A business owner buys an OE policy and two employees buy Individual Disability Income (DI) insurance policies. The result is a 20% discount for each of them.

OE + DI + DI = 20% discount³

Many owners have taken out loans to enhance their business. Make sure these large obligations are protected with the Business Loan Protection rider.¹
